THE ASSURANCE OF FACT. . . What does it take to reach the life summit you choose for yourself For Thomas Jefferson it was and it is the same for me today. . . 1. Persistence 2. Persistence 3. Persistence! Heres a frolicking way both to recall and learn new facts about American history that will warm your heart instead of provoking a snore! A book for all age groups, Come Ride the Rails with Smoke- stack Jack, is about awesome years in America from the Revolution forward. As this author has concluded, imagination in the case of Apples Steve Jobs carried him through a fascinating life of creativity. It was en- hanced by truths borne out in American history. Read here the story of a youth suffering concussion after a bicycle accident and fantasizing in a coma about so many marvels hed learned in his early years of life. Your imagination will be rewarded by seeing how virtual spirituality can be life-changing when you prep your mind to receive nuggets from history. Be not concerned whether your fantasy can become a lubri- cant to a rich life based on eternal truths. It will be. The youths mentor during his concussion is his alter ego, Smoke- stack Jack, a puppet who has lived forever in spiritual form. And would your imagination allow you to talk face to face in the spirit with George Washing- ton on a train owned by puppet Smokestack Jack A woman dying of cancer in her late 70s could not lay the manu- script aside. A NASA engineer was so fascinated by his copy, he said thats an extraordinary story....
