Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Allan, a wise video gamer and a mystery book freak, is a stubborn pre-teen who likes to be challenged and find the answers for himself. He always complained about moving every school year because of his mom's job, finding himself in what he described as the most boring towns on earth. Tired of making new friends in every new school, Allan chose to be a loner and fulfilled his emptiness with the company of his dog, a huge German Shepard, whom he considered his best and only friend, his videogames, and his mystery books. He closed himself off from trusting or making new friends. But in his last move to a strange town, he would change his mind and feelings forever. The new town was famous for its many tales about an enchanted castle located at the top of an enormous dark clouded mountain. For almost a century, people, and especially children, had been mysteriously disappearing without leaving any track of how or where to find them. One of the town tales referred to an evil creature that lived and controlled the castle and mountain and who was responsible for the disappearances. Allan finally found an interesting town with a creepy mystery and he was determined to investigate and get to the bottom of it, even though his new neighbors/classmates, John, Billy and Jimmy, warned him that the castle was a forbidden place for all the townies and all those who got in never got out. Allan also met Grace, a very smart girl with a photographic memory. She was in the same class as Allan, and she had always wanted to know the...
