Excerpt from Clover Presbyterian Church: History Read at the Celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of Its Founding, July 29th, 1931 The pastors at Bethel supplied at Center and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered on the third Sunday in July of each year. No records have been found of any of the officers of Center church, it being an outpost of Bethel, the officers would naturally be officers of Bethel church much as is the condition now at Bethel Chapel. The burial ground was located near the church and today there can be seen the graves of many who were buried in this hallowed spot. Some of the graves are not marked at all, except with field rocks, while others have hand-carved soapstone or marble markers. There are probably thirty or forty unmarked graves, while 11 have readable inscriptions. Following is a list of these.
