Louis M Lane: Late Secretary of State on the Subject of Anti-Masonry; Addressed to the Anti-Masonic Committee, at Harrisburg The following correspondence is worthy of special attention. Hearing of the existence of Mr. M Lane's letter, we addressed a note to him on the subject, asking permission at the same time to make it public. The subjoined notes will, however, fully explain the state of the affair. Hon Louis M Lane: Sir - Previous to the assembling of the late anti-masonic convention at Harrisburg, a committee of anti-masons addressed a letter to you, and several other distinguished citizens, desiring an expression of your sentiments on the subject of Free-Masonry, and on the propriety of excluding Free-Masons from all public trusts. Since that time, the anti-masons have published answers from two citizens only; but it is understood that nearly every gentleman addressed, responded to the interrogatories. My connection with the recent proceedings of our State Legislature, and my station as the first officer of the Grand Chapter of this State, induce...
