RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 58 pages. OCLC Number: 52400424 Excerpt: . . . ARL. It is specifically enjoined from making judgements on the programmatic structure of our work, partly because it is not equipped to perform this function, and partly because there are numerous other channels through which ARL receives such guidance. Because of the size and diversity of the ARL technical program, the panels will review the total program in depth over a two- or three-year period, reporting annually to the TAB on the one third to one half of the program reviewed. Its product will be a descriptive assessment in the form of a written report that will be published by the NRC. The TAB will also meet annually with the Director to provide an informal report of its findings before the publication of the report, and to receive guidance on the Directors desires for special areas of emphasis in the next years review. The initial contract with the NRC is for three years at approximately 650K per year. From these funds, the NRC will pay the expenses of all the members of the Board and the panels, supply a full-time Executive Director and appropriate clerical and support staff, and provide for the logistics and publication requirements of the Board. This approach has the advantages of providing the independence and stature required of a peer review, removing any possible conflicts of interest from ARL, and stamping the endeavor with the NRCs imprimatur. B. Metrics: The things that are countable in the world of R and D, for the most part, speak only peripherally to the three areas of interest discussed above. Nevertheless, because of the additional information they can provide, specifically as indicators of the functional health of the organization,...
