Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from University Gazette, Vol. 12: McGill College; December 1st, 1888 During the fourth year, lectures are delivered in Universal history, and the B. A. Classics comprises ancient history. Greek, Latin, English, French, and German languages and literature, all have their places in the calendar, while in the whole course no men tion is made of our country, or its raison d etre. Stay there is an honorable exception; the fourth year lec tures in geology and mineralogy bear witness to the fact that of the ten professors in the faculty of Arts, two, at least, are Canadians. Should not Canadian history and literature be taught in our colleges? Our country is young, says the quibbler Her history is comprised in a few volumes which anyone can read for himself; as for literature, comparatively little is heard of Cana dian writers.
