Excerpt: . his service has been on New Jersey and Lehigh Division, his record as Dean of the Official Corps, his forceful yet amiable personality, his intense loyalty and unimpeachable integrity have gained for him a host of warm friends in the company service, as well as elsewhere, all of whom join in the fervent wish that he may live long to enjoy his wellearned release from arduous duty which this present position in an advisory capacity will permit of. Mr. (ieorge W. Hay, who succeeds Mr. Xonnemacher as General Baggage Agent, and who also has been appointed District Passenger Agent, though comparatively a young man, has a record of some twenty years of raliroad service on one of the great trunk lines, and therefore brings to his new position long experience as well as executive ability of a high order. He will doubtless prove a valuable addition to the staff of the General Passenger Agent. # # Mr. R. K. Barton, who becomes Division Freight Agent at South Bethlehem, vice Mr. Thomas J. Fretz. resigned, although but comparatively a short time in the service of the Lehigh Valley, has acceptably filled the various positions to which he has been heretofore assigned, and will doubtless make good in his wider field of broader endeavor. Mr. C. E. Crane, who succeeds Mr. Barton at Newark, conies highly recommended, and will without doubt prove the right man in the right place. Mr. Thomas J. Fretz, who resigns the...
