Pegasusbooks, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . The early hijinks gradually give way to a realization that maybe he is not really a writer, social critic or working class hero; maybe he is just a cab driver after all. With a certain amount of hard-earned street smarts, he tries his hand at serious gambling and other off the meter ventures and becomes, briefly, an accidental drug dealer. The knockout punch he spends a year seeking finally comes, but not in the way he imagined or hoped. He comes close to losing what little he had and even commits suicide (sort of) over the phone to a person...
