Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Address Before the Whig and Conservative Citizens of Schenectady County: At Union Hall, December 30th, 1839 The friends of Henry Clay in the Convention, adhered to him to the last ballot, with a perseverance befitting their warm hearts and his great name; and when a majority declared for Wm. Henry Harrison, and Mr Clay's letter to his Kentucky friends was read, the magnanimity of soul displayed by those friends, the burning zeal, the unfeigned grief, and the devoted love exhibited by them in the outpourings of their glowing and impassioned eloquence, when they yielded Kentucky's favorite son to the will of the majority, to promote Democracy on for the sake of the Union, surpass my power of description, and, were Worthy of the brightest and purest days of the republic. I esteem it, gentlemen, one of the happiest events of my life, that I was permitted to be present at the deliberations of the convention from the commencement to the end, but the thrilling scene of the last day, was an exhibition of self devotion, patriotic feeling and stirring oratory, that had no parallel in the proceedings of any deliberative assembly I ever attended, and would embellish the brightest pages ever written by Milton and Hume. I returned from Harrisburgh more fixed in Republican principles than when I went, and more convinced of the permanency of our free institutions that a nation which could produce on such an occasion, so many wise heads and honest hearts, contained within it the elements of restorative vitality, that would secure its existence for centuries; and as our origin and growth as a nation, may be regarded a series of miracles, betokening a...
